Drama darlings?

The speaker is mid way through her second point when she pauses...'perhaps it would happen like this...', she says. The congregation sit enthralled and in those three short minutes her talk is brought to life by the actors on stage.

Six months later in a coffee shop in Bangor two friends are overheard...'will you ever forget the impact of the drama that Sunday morning?'
If you can imagine yourself playing a role on the new drama team speak to Steve - steve@communityworksonline.com or Jude jude@communityworksonline.com
