News and Events

Our Christmas Challenge

You may have noticed items of food have appeared around the edges of the concourse.

Eight years ago The Salvation Army and St Vincent de Paul formed a partnership with BBC NI to ensure every child in every corner of the province would receive a gift at Christmas.

This year, as in previous years, we have joined with these organisations in this Christmas Challenge.

The appeal collects and distributes Christmas toys and gifts for families in need. Last year items were distributed to 4020 families helping over 10,700 children across Northern Ireland.

The items that we collect here are distributed by the Salvation Army to families within the local area.

Join with us in making a difference this Christmas. Please bring in the items listed below during this week.
